Social Media Manager & Content Creator

Luca Castagnini

WHO I AM:

I am a social media marketing specialist, professional photographer and content creator from Northern Italy.

I have been working for more than 4 years in the field of social media and online communication for local and international companies like Nikon, OMIO, and more.

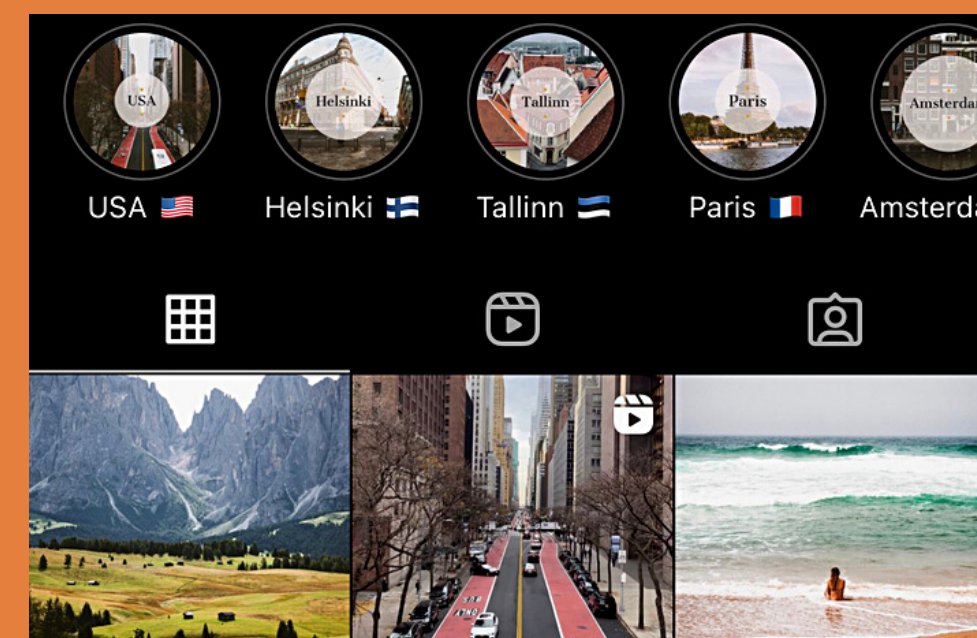

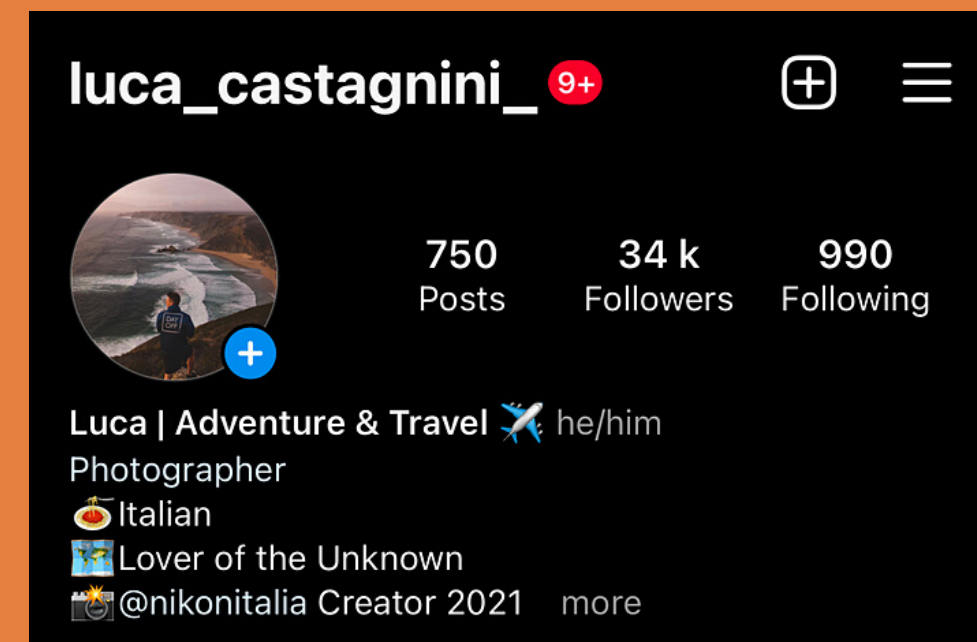

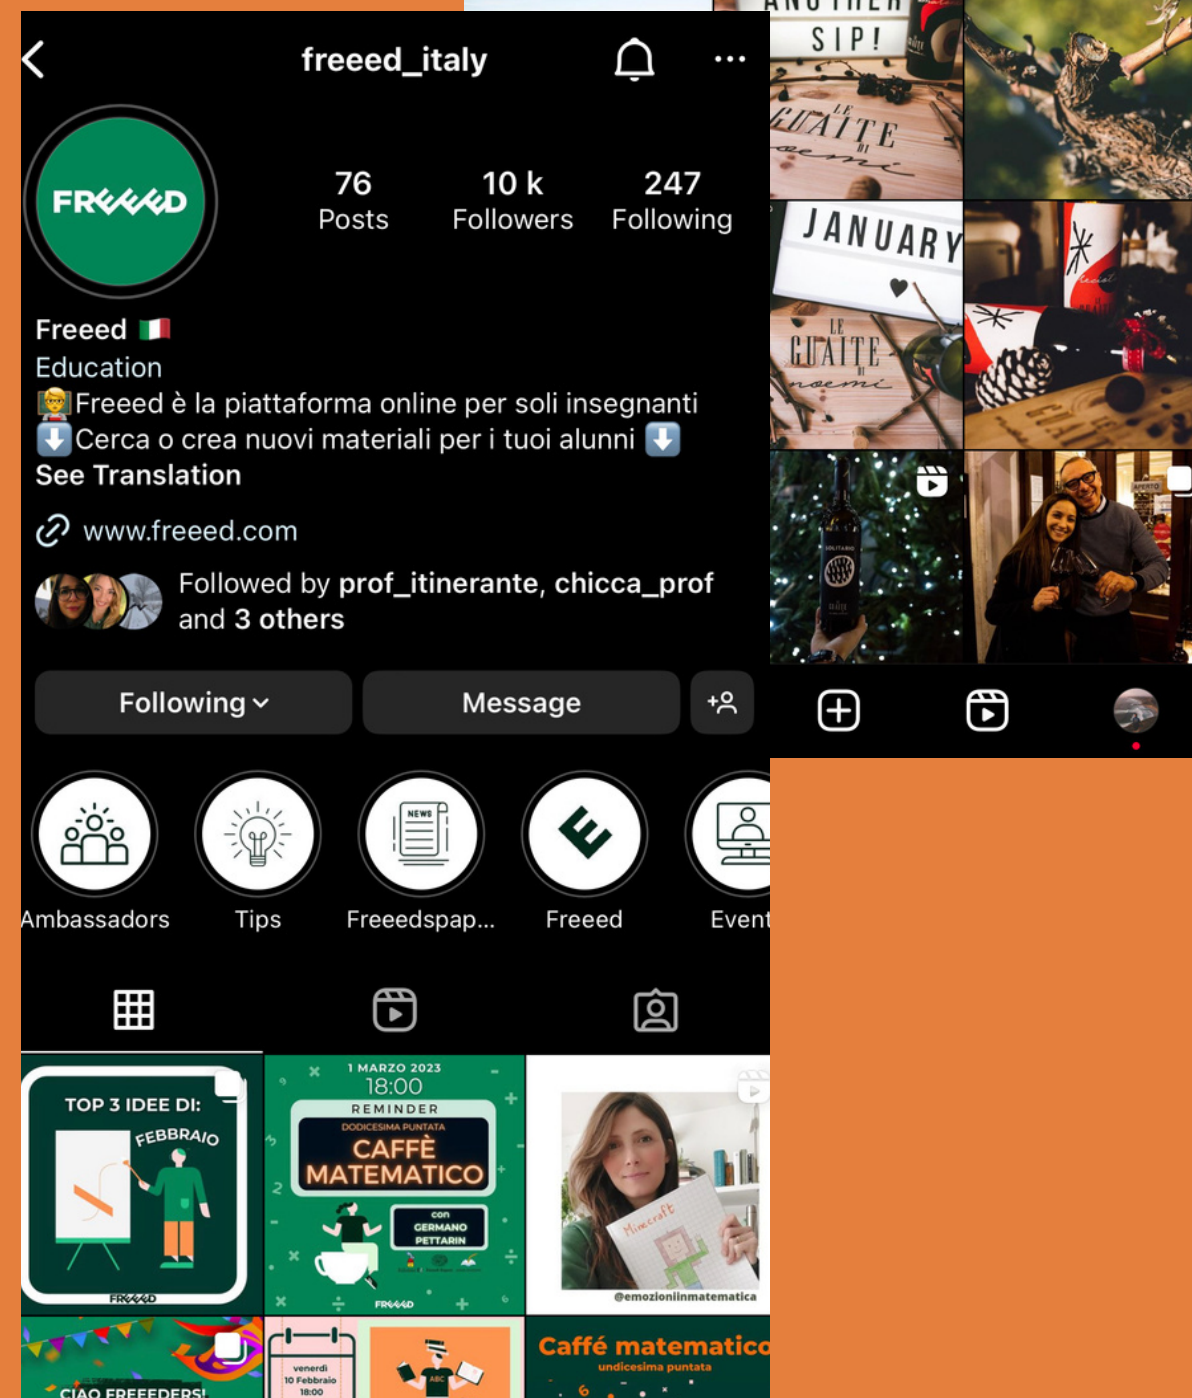

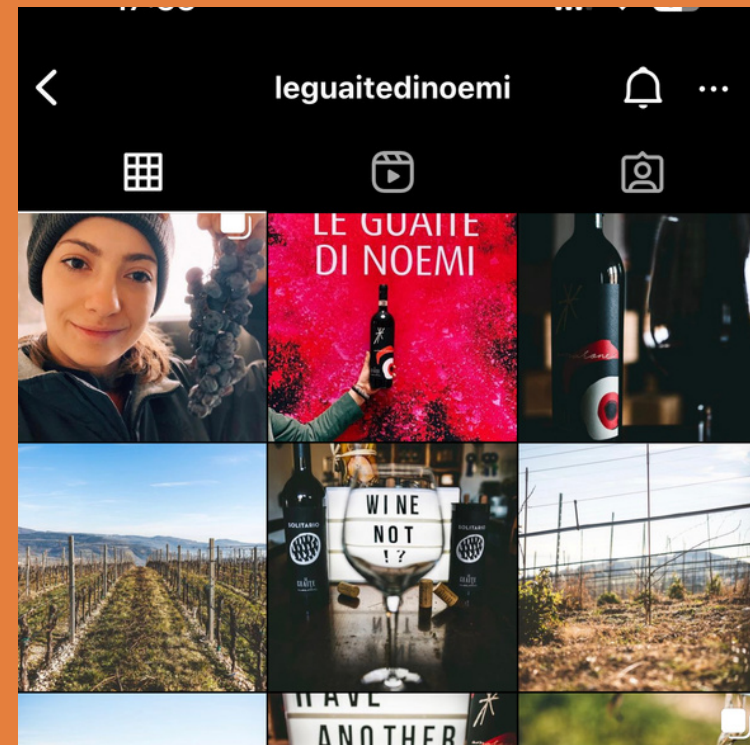

Social Media Management

I have been working in digital marketing since 2018 as a Social Media Manager, Content Creator, and Curator.

I have carried out paid/non-paid campaigns, I have grown communities, and created strategies for allowing clients to achieve their desired objectives. I have also grown and managed my professional photography page since 2016.

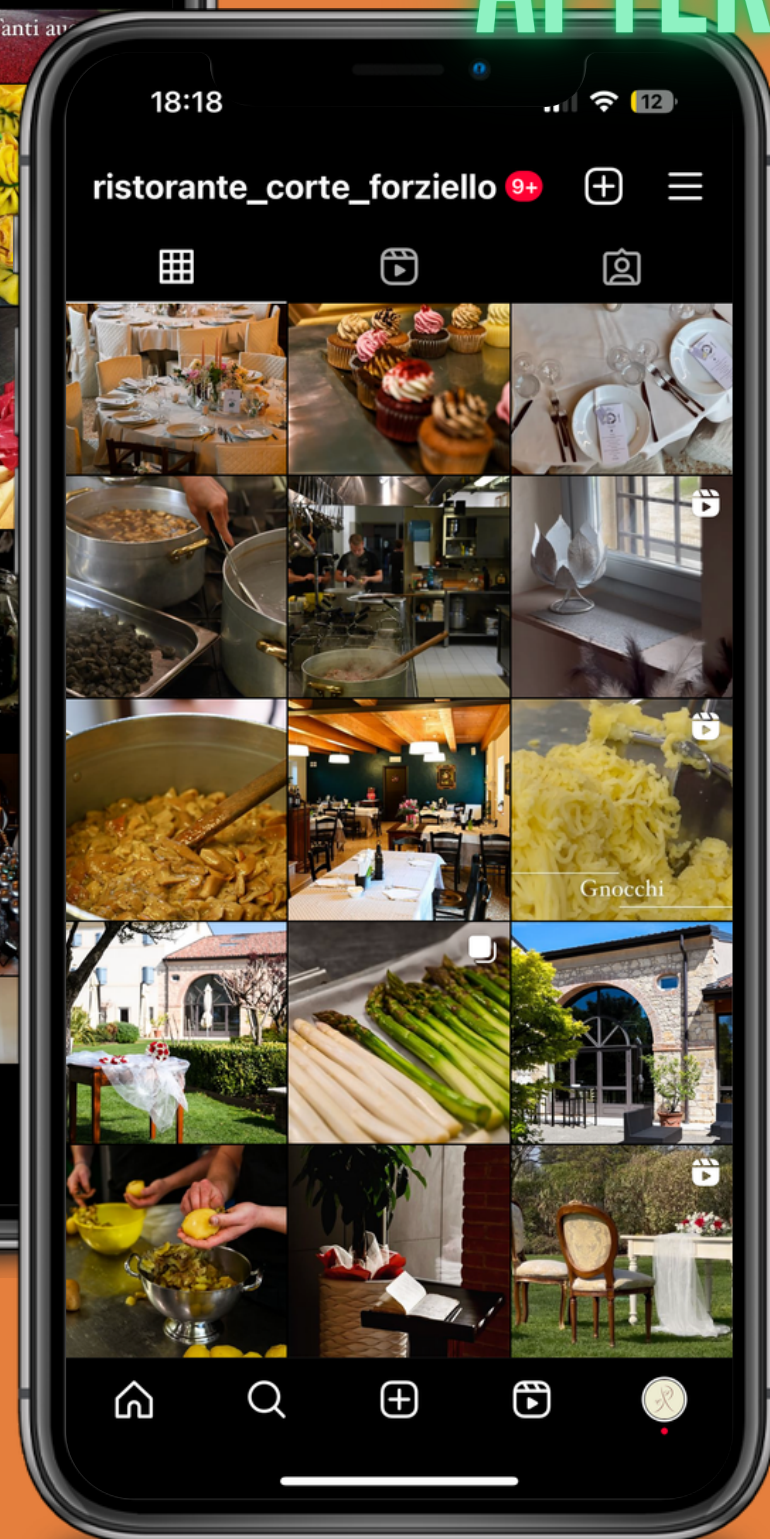

I worked with local and international companies like Nikon, OMIO, HeyDude, Daniel Wellington, and startup companies like Freed.

Content Creation

I have been creating visual and written content for more than 4 years, both for local businesses, international companies and startups.

Remarkable content must be paired with engaging copywriting.

Images that speak louder than words.

Photography

Photography always allowed me to share my own visions of the world.
Social Media allowed me to share it with everyone.
